SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

The following letter announcing the schedule of required lectures in the pre-military training program at the University of Ljubljana was sent by the Office of the Dean of the Technical Faculty to Technical Faculty department heads on 23 March 1949. Concurrently, special training courses in first aid, fire fighting, and practise air raid drills were initiated by city and rural committees throughout Slovenia. [REDACTED] those persons who fail to attend these training courses or to comply with training regulations are assigned to hard labor for a period of two months.

We have been unable to select other training hours because the army authorities have few lecturers, who lecture on several subjects. Section Heads are asked to inform all professors in their sections of this schedule. Professors should reschedule all lectures which conflict with the pre-military training schedule.

The Dean:
